In linguistics, a yes–no question, formally known as a polar question or a general question is a question whose expected answer is one of two choices, one that affirms the question and one that denies the question. Typically, in English, the choices are either "yes" or "no", but there are many others that could be used, such as "yep" and "nope". Formally, they present an exclusive disjunction, a pair of alternatives of which only one is acceptable.
